

Application for Employment

The Village of Corrales is an EOE/ADA employer.

The Village of Corrales offers a wide range of benefits to eligible employees and dependents. Benefits include: vacation leave, sick leave, paid holidays, health insurance plans (medical, dental, and vision), and retirement benefits.

Retirement: Eligible Village of Corrales employees participate in PERA. PERA is a defined benefit plan. That means both you and your employer contribute a certain percentage (you from your salary, employer from its funds) towards your retirement. Benefits are paid when certain age and service credit eligibility requirements are met, regardless of the amount of member contributions paid into the plan. Visit nmpera.org for more information.

Insurance Plans: Under the City of Albuquerque’s health plan, eligible employees may elect to participate in the following insurance plans: Presbyterian, Delta Dental, and VSP Vision.

Supporting Documents

Application for Employment